

Weekly Work Activity Report

Title: Dominguez Channel Mystery Oil Spill

Location: ACTA Right-of- Way, south of Alameda Street adjacent to Tesoro Refinery

Operational Period: From: 0600 04/10/11 To: 0600 04/16/11

Temperature: Avg. 71°

Precipitation: None

Sky: Partly Sunny/Sunny

Wind: 0 – 15 mph

1. ACTIVITY:

NRC's equipment, materials and personnel remained on-site on standby. NRC re-deployed boom around pump outfall.

2. EQUIPMENT:

Description	Source	Units
Portable generator	NRC	1
Portable light Tower	NRC	2
Wier Skimmer, Skim Pack	NRC	1
2 - 3" Dia. Pump	NRC	2
2 - 4" Trash Pump	NRC	2
Air compressor 100-185	NRC	1
Hose, suction & discharge	NRC	9
21" Contractor boom	NRC	300'
Delineators	NRC	29
Baker Tank (21,000 gal. "Frac" Tank)	NRC	18
20 ft Storage Container	NRC	2

3. PERSONNEL:

NRC - 1 PM, 1 Field Supervisor, 2 - 3 Technicians (as needed)

ACTA – 1 Environmental Engineer, 1 Utility Coordinator

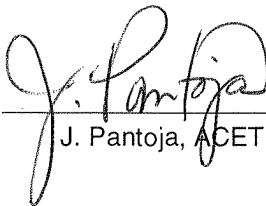

4. SUMMARY:

Equipment on site on standby, re-deployed boom around pump outfall, continued testing skimmers and inspected the site. NRC continued to pump out oil from the Shell Source Area; there are approximately 7,555 gallons (Revised from last week) of oily water, 95% oil and 5% water, in the baker tank.

5. FUTURE WORK:

Additional equipment and personnel will be mobilized as needed and placed on standby in case of rain. Continue to monitor site.

Report By:

J. Pantoja, ACET

Date: 04/18/11